1 Thessalonians 4: 1-2 (NIV)-----ALTHOUGH most of the time we don't think about it, every human being has a motivation which drives life and living. For the person of the world it will be some ambition or desire. This takes many different forms. The basic motivation of most is to be happy, have a family, and a reasonable standard of life.

LIVING TO PLEASE GOD - Sermon on 1 Thessalonians 4: 1-2

Summary and Analysis 1 and 2 Thessalonians. Summary. Two letters that Paul wrote to the church in Thessalonica are preserved in the New Testament. The first letter — 1 Thessalonians — was written to a community of believers who had been Christians for only a short period of time, probably no more than a few months.
